

New to the Role of SEND TA

Tuesday 25th February

1.00-2.30pm

Venue: Lynch Hill Primary School Academy

The role of the SEND TA is of huge importance in catering effectively for the needs of SEND pupils. It is vital that TAs work successfully with teachers to raise learning and attainment of our SEND pupils whilst also focusing on developing their independence, self-esteem and social inclusion. If we get this right, our pupils will thrive in our educational settings.

Who is the session for?

The session is aimed at those who are in the early stages of their learning journey as a SEND TA

What will the session cover?

- The role of the SEND TA—expectations and responsibilities
- Common barriers to overcome and potential trip hazards
- Effective strategies to support & empower pupils, build self-esteem and promote positive mental health
- How to work effectively with colleagues
- Q and A with current SEND TAs.

The session will be led by Lindsey Tomlinson (headteacher), Chloe O'Connor (AHT and SENDCo) and current SEND TAs from Lynch Hill Primary Academy
